

NORFOLK HISTORIC BUILDINGS GROUP (NHBG)

The Tacolneston Project: A Study of Vernacular Buildings in the South Norfolk Claylands

Journal of the Norfolk Historic Buildings Group, Volume 4 (2009).

This summer saw the publication of a new 170-page study by the Norfolk Historic Buildings Group (NHBG) which sheds important new light on the surviving vernacular buildings in the county, focusing on a uniquely rich collection of over 40 timber-framed buildings in Tacolneston and its surrounding parishes in the claylands of south Norfolk.
